

Mr. Sharvil Shah

M.E. Env. Engg.

M.S. (USA)

Sharvil is a Business Analyst/Project Manager specializing in engineering, banking, and financial, medical, healthcare, infrastructure and insurance domain.

His interests in environmental engineering, system analysis include gathering requirements, documenting, managing resources, website development, air pollution, water and wastewater treatment, control, and management including Information Systems and Project Management.

He received his Diploma in Engineering from Board of Technical Education Mumbai of Govt. Polytechnic, Miraj. He received his Post Graduate Diploma in Computer Science from Walchand College of Engineering of Shivaji University, Kolhapur where he graduated summa cum laude (4 CGPA). He graduated cum laude from the Shivaji University, Dr. JJMCOE with a Bachelor of Engineering.

He received his M.E. from Shivaji University of Walchand College of Engineering, Sangli where he graduated with honors. He received his M.S. in Technology Management from University of Bridgeport, USA where he graduated cum laude (3.95 CGPA).

Mr. Sharvil completed his internship in Web-development at Dnyandeep Infotech Pvt Ltd, Sangli. He worked at Association of Past students Walchand Collee of Engineering, Sangli.

He also completed his internship in Water and Energy Auditing at Santa Energy in Bridgeport, CT.

He then continued his Engineering, Research and Information Technology development practices at NEERI-Mumbai, MWH India, Tata Consulting Engineers Mumbai, India, where she served as a Senior Engineer in the Infrastructure Unit.

He worked with TCS, on various projects. He also worked as a Free-lancing Deutsche Bank, Hewlett-Packard Houston, TX. He has also served in a variety of leadership positions for Information System, Information Technology and Application Development Projects with BB&T, Wells Fargo Bank, CVS Caremark, QSSI-CMS, Commonwealth of Virginia

He has been actively participated and published various research article at IIT Chennai, NEERI-Delhi, CPCB, USEPA, IEEE Hartford. He published “Environmental Studies Textbook” RK Publications, “Business Development -Engineering Study guide” released for DMS (Document Management System) of TATA Consulting Engineers Ltd.He also prepared “Business Process Document Guide” released for KMS (Knowledge Management System) of Enterprise Process for the department of Information Technology, Commonwealth of Virginia.

Sharvil Shah is a member of PMI, IIBA Richmond, VA Chapter. Outside of work, he enjoys spending time with his wife, eating at the many wonderful restaurants in Richmond, hiking, traveling, training, volunteering, helping locals and providing services at Gurudwara and temples.